Research Areas

1. Cancer health disparities
2. Childhood, adolescent, and young adult cancer survivorship
3. Informal caregivers
4. Patient experiences and health outcomes
5. Community-based cancer prevention

GRANT SUPPORT

Current:

Burroughs Wellcome Fund Ochoa-Dominguez (PI) 09/01/2023-08/31/2026
 The objective of this award is to provide three years of support for career development activities for underrepresented minority postdoctoral fellows.
 Role: Postdoctoral Research Fellow

NIH/NCI F99/K00 CA-20-048 Ochoa (PI) 09/01/2021-06/30/2026
 The proposed F99/K00 research examines how multi-level factors contribute to disparities in health-related quality of life and survivorship care in diverse populations of young adult cancer survivors. During the dissertation research (F99 phase), the goal is to examine the collaborative management of cancer among ethnically diverse survivor-caregivers. During the K00 phase, I extend this research and training by developing expertise in understanding the healthcare system and policy-level factors that contribute to disparities in cancer survivorship.
 Role: Predoctoral/Postdoctoral Research Fellow

Completed:

Research Voucher Program Ochoa (Co-PI) 09/15/2020-06/30/2021
 Funded by the Southern California Clinical and Translational Science Institute
 Childhood Cancer Survivors Caregivers
 The objective of this study is to understand the experiences of Latino caregivers of pediatric cancer patients; funds are designed to support bilingual transcriptions services, translation services, and qualitative software for data analysis.

NIH/NCI T32 CA 009492-35 M Pentz and J Milam (Co-PIs) 08/01/2019-07/31/2020
 The objective of T32 programs is to help ensure that a diverse and highly trained workforce is available to assume leadership roles related to biomedical, behavioral, and clinical research agenda. The goal of this T32 is to train predoctoral students and postdoctoral fellows in conducting research on cancer prevention and control.
 Role: Predoctoral Research Fellow

INVITED LECTURES, SYMPOSIUMS, PANELS & SEMINARS
